

Alexander White

Associate

 New York, NY

 awhite@pryorcashman.com

 212.326.0189

Alexander White is a member of Pryor Cashman's Intellectual Property Group, where his practice focuses on patent prosecution matters and supporting the firm's clients in litigations involving IP.

Alexander has helped clients of every size, from large corporations to first-time individual inventors, drafting and prosecuting patents for a wide array of technologies, including mechanical, electrical, and computer technologies, among others. He has also helped clients receive favorable outcomes in patent and trademark litigations.

Previously, Alexander served as a patent examiner at the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office for over seven years, working primarily on patent applications in the mechanical engineering arts. Subsequently, he was a patent agent and associate for other national and international firms.

Services

- Intellectual Property
- Patent

Education

- American University Washington College of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2021)
- Virginia Tech (B.S., 2012)
 - Aerospace Engineering, Ocean Engineering, and Mathematics

Admissions

- New York
- U.S. Patent and Trademark Office