

Alexandra Blankman

Associate

New York, NY

ablankman@pryorcashman.com

212.326.0826

Alexandra Blankman is a member of Pryor Cashman's Litigation Group, where her practice focuses on intellectual property matters in the media and entertainment, technology, and pharmaceutical industries.

Alexandra has represented and counseled clients on a wide variety of copyright, trademark, and false advertising matters in state and federal courts. Her practice also encompasses other types of civil litigations, including breach of contract claims and antitrust matters.

Previously, Alexandra served as a commercial litigation associate at another major New York firm. She also served as a legal intern at AMC Networks in New York.

Pro Bono

Alexandra has offered pro bono representation to a nonprofit organization that provides piano education to students in underserved school districts and a reproductive health clinic.

Services

- Litigation
- Intellectual Property
- Media + Entertainment

Education

- Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., cum laude, 2021)
 - Director of Special Events, Georgetown Entertainment & Media Alliance
- University of London (M.A., with distinction, 2018)
- Boston University (B.A., magna cum laude, 2017)

Admissions

- New York