Jason Pachter is a member of Pryor Cashman's Corporate Group.

Jason handles a wide range of transactional legal matters at the firm.

Extensive experience in corporate law allows Jason to counsel clients throughout negotiations of business deals to draft documents that clients understand, whether related to asset sales and purchases, mergers, acquisitions, service agreements, joint ventures, operating agreements, or day-to-day operations of a business.

Jason works, and has worked, with CEOs, creators, entrepreneurs, investors, and other people involved with the arts, entertainment, the food and beverage industry, hotels, artificial intelligence, and industrial services. His successful representations for clients include Soundlabs AI Inc. in its negotiation of a services contract with a major record label.
