

Melissa Brij-Raj

Associate

New York, NY

mbrij-raj@pryorcashman.com

212.326.0439

Melissa Brij-Raj is a member of Pryor Cashman's Corporate Group and Corporate Trust Practice. Her practice focuses on representing banks, trust companies, and other financial institutions acting as trustees or in various agency capacities across a wide array of domestic and international financing transactions.

Previously, Melissa was an associate at another major international law firm.

During law school, Melissa interned at Paramount (formerly ViacomCBS) as a New York City Bar 1L Diversity Fellow; she also interned with Foot Locker's in-house counsel as a summer associate.

Services

- Corporate
- Corporate Trust
- Financial Institutions
- SEC + Corporate Governance

Education

- Fordham University School of Law (J.D., 2022)
  - Crowley International Human Rights Scholar; International Human Rights Clinic and Corporate Social Responsibility Clinic; Archibald R. Murray Public Service Student Award (for dedication to pro bono services); Fordham Urban Law Journal
- Northeastern University (M.A., 2019)
- Northeastern University (B.A., cum laude, 2018)

Admissions

- New York
- District of Columbia

Professional Affiliations

- New York Bar Association Entertainment, Arts, and Sports Law Diversity Committee
- New York City Bar Association, Copyright & Literary Property Committee